An Academic Multilingual Journal

ATRAS is a double-blind, peer-reviewed, and open-access journal dedicated to publishing high-quality research ISSN: 2710-8759/ EISSN: 2992-137. The journal publishes twice a year (July and January). The journal has been issued by the Faculty of Letters, Languages, and Arts, University of Saida, Dr. Moulay Tahar, Algeria since 2019. We welcome original research articles, comprehensive review papers, and critical studies that contribute to academic and professional discourse. Our mission is to provide a platform for scholars, researchers, and practitioners to share innovative findings, engage in interdisciplinary discussions, and advance knowledge in their respective domains. We uphold rigorous academic standards through a thorough peer-review process. Following the initial acceptance of a submission, the review process typically takes between 15 days and two months, ensuring a balance between efficiency and quality.

ATRAS is committed to maintaining transparency, integrity, and accessibility in scholarly publishing, making valuable research available to a global audience. ATRAS covers a broad range of topics, including but not limited to the following areas:
Language Studies: Language and culture, grammar, syntax, phonetics, morphology, semantics, discourse analysis, and the history of language.
